Special Awards

In memory of Bob Zabinski, supporters of "Start to Star" offer a monetary vocal award/awards.

The Bob Zabinski Memorial Vocal Award will be presented at the "Best of Fair" Contest. This award will be presented to the vocalist/vocalists from the week who demonstrates the best vocal production, technical skills and promise as a singer. The daily scores from the week will be taken into consideration but will not necessarily determine the winner/winners.

Dave Driscoll of Saratoga Springs offers:

The "Rising Star" Talent Award. This award will be presented in recognition of an act in the 12 & Under category. The award will be based on judges' consensus of an act demonstrating outstanding ability and achievement for their age, and will encompass all genres.

Alden Floor Service, Inc. offers:

The "Shooting Star" Talent Award. This award will be presented in recognition of a novel performance genre, or an act showing high creativity through performance of original composition/ choreography. The award will be based on judges' consensus of a performance act demonstrating high creativity, outstanding ability and/or achievement for their age, and is open to all genres. Original acts must be performed by the composer/ choreographer in order to be eligible. If the judges decide that there are no acts that qualify for this award, the prize will be held over until the following year.

Justin Joyner of Saratoga Springs offers:

This talent award will be presented in recognition of a guitar- playing contestant. It will be granted at the "Best of Fair" to the individual who demonstrates exceptional guitar skills, while exhibiting charismatic stage presence. The daily scores from the week will be taken into consideration but will not necessarily determine the winner. If the judges deem there are no acts that qualify for the award, the prize will be held over until the following year.
